We are still seeing impacts from COVID-19, and subsequent market downturn affecting applications numbers.

Recertification rates have picked back up from what we were seeing in Q3 2020. Most programs have returned to normal. New applications are down overall, but we hope to see it pick up by end of Q3 2021.

Percentage Breakdown of Certified Inspectors

Overtime, interest in ICP certification programs has grown in countries outside of the US. We continue to see growth in Canada due to the API 1169 program. In 2019, there was a dip in inspectors overseas.

*COVID-19 impact to testing began in earnest March 18th and continued through much of April and May 2020. North American test center were closed, and reopened May 1st. Over 2,000 displaced testers were rescheduled to later dates that are reflected in the August and September 2020 windows. We start to see exam scheduling pick up again in early 2021, with spillover from those rescheduling from 2020 exams. 2021 exams are only being reported through April 2021 window.

Distribution of Exams per Window 2018 - April 2021

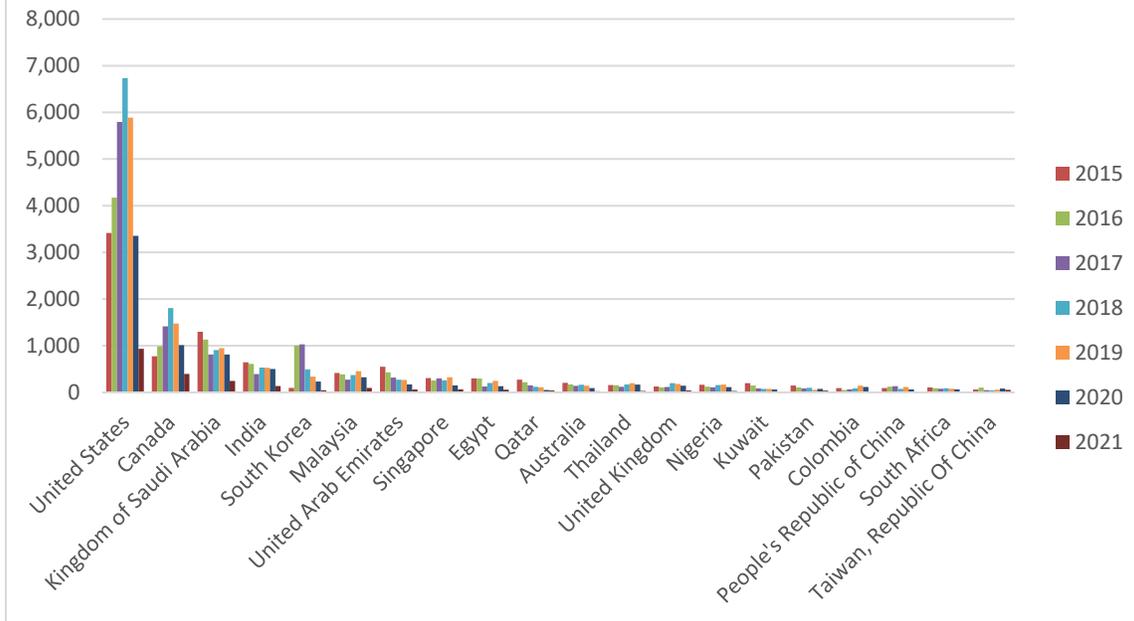

The dip in exams for March and April 2020 were due to the impact of COVID and closures of N. American Test Centers. Above we are reporting through April 2021 numbers.

Remote Exams 2020 - 2021

Remote exams were piloted starting with the smaller CBT exams in November 2020. They were then expanded across all programs starting with the February 2021 570 window.

510/653 underwent Standard Settings in November 2019, 570 underwent a Standard Settings in November 2020

^^Testing window was impacted by COVID-19

- Prometric shutdown all North American testing centers on March 18, 2020 until April 30, 2020 in response to COVID-19, impacting the March and April exams
- Many international testing locations were also impacted.
- Extended the March and April windows until May 17, 2020.
