

MORE SOUTH CAROLINA JOBS ARE ON THE HORIZON

Responsible offshore oil and natural gas development creates jobs.

Offshore energy development is safer than ever with new technologies, enhanced spill prevention, and a focus on containment and response.

Safe and responsible development will grow South Carolina's economy, create up to 35,000 jobs, and with smart legislation could generate almost $4 billion in revenue for the state in the next 20 years.¹

71% of South Carolinians agree² – safe and responsible offshore oil and natural gas development works for South Carolina.
