*COVID-19 impact to testing began in earnest March through May 2020. During that period, we had over 2,000 displaced testers rescheduled to later dates that are reflected in the August and September 2020 windows. In the early part of 2022, we start to see exam scheduling pick up again, as the January and February windows are up slightly higher from the same period in 2021. 2022 exams are only being reported against current scheduling through April 2022.
